anything for him -

Thomas L. Mead

To His Honor Chief Justice
Near Lancaster Pa
Dec 3rd 1864

I wish to get an opportunity in the late session of the Confederate State.

If you would put yourself in my power I should be most anxious to obtain it.

My education was acquired at West Point, where I was, in 1852, and I served my time, in the Army, in 1854.

The papers showing my connection with the Confederate Army, and my time and service with the same, I had now during my stay at West Point and I have been and nominally a. C. C., but I have not received a Commission in the
A. C. C.

Do please send back and I shall be most obliged.

Very Respectfully
